Get the latest from inside NNIT

The latest issue of NNIT's employee magazine is now available at interface.nnit.com.

Find testimonials from customers, get inspired by successful projects, meet passionate NNITers and stay updated with technology articles.

You can amongst others meet the NNIT Cloud Evangelist Christoffer Mors who talks about the latest trends in cloud and the bimodal IT model with dedicated cloud innovation hubs along side the traditional IT. Read the interview here.

You can also read how PFA and NNIT have created a genuine partnership. Find out how they boosted customer satisfaction with 37% in only six months here.

Or check out how "Good preparation is half way to stable operations," as Head of IT Operations at Haldor Topsøe, Christian Eriksen puts it. Find out how NNIT's Sharepoint team made sure to have a happy customer. Read more here.

And did you know NNIT developed an innovative strategic tool to help CIOs reflect on the changing role of IT and their strategic position on the field? VP Marketing Lars Petersen (LBOP) illustrates how Playmaker brings business results. Watch the video here.
